Some Enchanted Evening

January 25, 1963

ASB King Nate Shaw

ASB Queen Frankie Coleman

After many weeks of planning, the ASB's night finally came. The Swallow Room was decorated with twinkling lights and crowns in angel hair to set the mood of "Some Enchanted Evening." A sell-out crowd danced to the music of The Nomads. During the breaks, they were entertained by the singing of Donna Carson and Betty Turner. To ASB King, Nate Shaw, and ASB Queen, Frankie Coleman, it really was "Some Enchanted Evening."

Stairway to the Stars

The Green and White Ball was held March 15 in the Swallow Room. The theme "STAIRWAY TO THE STARS" was carried out with a large stairway on which the pictures of the candidates for Miss Lincoln were mounted. A large crowd danced in the star-strewn Swallow Room to the music of the Ray-Nears. The highlight of the evening came with the crowning of Barbara Lazos as Miss Lincoln. Donna Carson and Mary Alice Franklin were attendents.

GEORGE D. AGUON
"Dino," as he is known to his friends, was in Lettermen's Club 11, 12; Wrestling 10, 11, 12; "C" Track 10; and was a Delegate to the Nominating Convention 10. He likes traveling and excitement. Dino's hobby is writing song lyrics and singing. He plans to attend City College for two years and then go into the Air Force. He will always remember a certain someone and his wrestling matches. To George, high school is the most exciting part in everyone's life.

JULIA AGUON
Julia participated in GAA, Gymnastics 10, 11, 12, Modern Dance 10, and was a delegate to the Nominating Convention in her Junior year.

ANNE LOUISE AKINS
Anne has attended Lincoln for three years. Her nickname is "Dimples" and she moved to California from Missouri. Her future plans are to go to Beauty College and become a Beautician. She will always remember the good times in Choir 10, 11, 12, and eating Southern Fried Chicken and Tacos.

MELVIN D. AKO
